UPK-2 Department Board Report

2016-2017

Department Members: MaryAnn Strasser, Merry Jo Polimeni, Brandi Bishop, Kayc Cass-Northrop, Angela Lynk, Brittany Ritz, Liz Dormer, Amy Lincoln, Alice Fitch, Diana DiGrande.

Point of Pride

Many of our members participated in Learning Walks at other schools. We have also opened our classroom doors to many educators from other districts to see how we utilize technology in our lessons.

Student Engagement

Points of Pride:

Beginning to use iPads for blended learning (Zearn, EDPuzzle, etc.)
Using technology to enhance learning (Splash Math, Raz-Kids, Kahoot, etc.)
Students using technology to create (Shadow Puppets, PicCollages, iMovies, etc.)
Cooperative learning opportunities within lessons

Areas of Growth:

Continue to learn how to use instructional technologies to personalize learning for students
Continue to work toward 1:1 iPad implementation
Using movement to learn (example: simulate how water moves through the Water cycle)

In our blended learning classroom some traditional face-to-face "seat time" has been replaced by digital learning activities. With this type of teaching we are able to take advantage of the best features of both face-to-face and digital learning.

We have found that with technology we can get more students engaged, improve collaboration, and most importantly make learning fun! Students are creating things using apps like PicCollage, Shadow Puppets, iMovies, Kahoots, Little Bird Tales then they share and publish them.

We find cooperative learning tasks as more intellectually demanding, allow students to be creative and involve higher order thinking skills. Our role as teachers change from giving information to facilitating students' learning.

STEAM Enhancement

Points of Pride:

Collaboration with Special Areas; Art, Music and Library.
STEAM room in the Elementary School (Fun Friday)
Exploration centers (Lincoln Logs, gears, Makerspace items)

Areas of Growth:

Using BOCES Science kits to provide hands on learning experiences
(K-2 each use 2 kits.)

Each grade level (K-2) is in the process of creating a shared document for Social Studies curriculum that includes ideas for integrating Art, Music, Media Center and technology. STEAM opportunities are being provided through center exploration at the younger grades and in the STEAM room for other grades. These experience provide opportunities for students to explore and learn in a hands-on way.

ELA Literacy Program Development

Points of Pride:

UPK-2 Vertical alignment of Reading, Writing and Phonics program
K-2 Horizontal alignment of Reading, Writing and Mathematics

Areas of Growth:

Using our Instructional Coach to provide ongoing support in the implementation of our Lucy Calkins writing program.
Mapping out our ELA curriculum with our Instructional Coach
Using iPads and Raz-Kids reading books to provide individualized reading for students at their instructional level.

Vertical alignment of the curriculum has been a process; we spent time digging into the curriculum at each grade level, reviewing standards and then making decisions about Curriculum that would help us meet those standards. We wanted to make sure each teacher was building upon the work of the previous teacher without duplication or inconsistency of what has being taught. Our work this year has been finding ways to support each other in the implementation of this new curriculum.

Teachers at each grade level are working closely to horizontally align what is taught, share ideas and develop common formative assessments. By looking at individual and class assessment scores we are able to see what content is being mastered by our classes. This process of horizontal alignment has lead to more communication, ensuring that key concepts are emphasized in every classroom and provides a consistent education for each child regardless the teacher.

Respectfully submitted,

2016-2017 Department Chair Reports

(Third and Fourth Grades)

Our department, Jean Becker, Kristen Bariteau, Kathleen Meteyer, Ryan Betrus, William Saar and Christine Arsenault, appreciate your time, support and commitment to our district.

ELA LITERACY PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

We will target student mastery of foundational and grade-level ELA skills and literacy achievement through district-wide ELA program development.

Points of Pride:

- ELA/Math Summer Program
- 3rd Grade Project Based Learning(last $\frac{1}{2}$ year)
- Keyboarding
- 3rd grade ability based RTI groups
- Research reports

Areas of Growth:

- ELA curriculum mapping with Literacy Coach
- 3rd and 4th grade training in Lucy Calkins writing program
- Planning and preparing common assessments
- Department member is currently being trained in LLI

By age 8, most children have moved from learning to read to reading to learn. By 9-10 years old a child knows what “good readers” do. They are developing inferential skills and analyzing text. Because reading and writing are interrelated, children are reading for many purposes at this age.

We take great pride in preparing our students with their ELA skills. We found the Math coaching experience to be extremely beneficial in planning for our needs. We continue with ELA coaching this year with the same enthusiasm. We know that we will need to continually monitor and adjust our program to meet the needs of our students.

STEAM ENHANCEMENT

We will prepare students for success in the 21st Century with increased learning opportunities and increased student participation in the areas of science, technology, engineering, the arts, and math (STEAM).

Points of Pride:

- Most recent 3rd and 4th grade math scores
- Access to STEAM Lab
- Use of Mystery Science (web based program)
- Use of programs from the Summer training at Keuka College
- Enrichment project with Deb Wordingham in Naples Community
- Availability of additional apps (purchased)

Areas of Growth:

- To continue with the math program and keep scores consistent or higher
- Participating in Professional Development to enhance the program
- Coding

Eight to ten year old children are learning to interact with their peers and adjust to social rules and expectations. They are starting to bud with independence and responsibility. Through cooperative group interaction students are able to work together toward a common outcome.

We are very excited to have access to the STEAM Lab and new advances in technology. With the use of the iPads we are able to utilize many new apps and programs. We have also worked on our math curriculum during our coaching sessions to allow us to adjust and improve our program. Many members are seeking professional development opportunities to enhance their understanding of the many changes in technology. We feel that improving our “tool bag” will benefit our students and help them to be creative and active learners.

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

We will focus attention on student motivation and engagement by supporting strategies and training needed to heighten each student's interest and engagement in his or her academic and extracurricular programs.

Points of Pride:

- Technology integration-1:1 iPads
- Increase in engagement with programs like Schoology and Prodigy and research
- Homework club
- Crossover ELA/Science activities at Community Park

Areas of Growth:

- Recess Policy-Playground for intermediate students
- Reestablish the sequence of field trips in 3rd and 4th grade

Students in third and fourth grade continue to be concrete learners. They are beginning to understand abstract or hypothetical concepts. They are emerging detectives with their logical abilities.

Our job is to provide many learning opportunities that will support our students' learning. We are pleased that the district has provided each student with iPads and the training to use this tool to its full extent. The introduction of the Schoology program has been received well by the children. They are actively involved and quite proficient with technology.

Students have daily recess at all grade levels. Recess is a time of social and emotional growth for eight to ten year olds. With this policy we would like to encourage that an intermediate playground be installed to meet the needs of the 4-6th grade students. Often there is not enough room or proper equipment for the older students.

We are grateful for our administration and the support that they provide. It is wonderful to work in a positive, encouraging and considerate environment. Thank you for your time and support in guiding our district.

Respectfully submitted,
Christine Arsenault

ELA LITERACY PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

We will target student mastery of foundational and grade-level ELA skills and literacy achievement through district-wide ELA program development.

Points of Pride

- Full time literacy coach to assist at Elementary building and 7th and 8th Grade
- All students were benchmarked K-6 for ELA in September so that all teachers had a start level of where students were at
- N2Y curriculum for students taking the New York State alternative assessment (NYSSA)
- Increased amount of technology (communication devices) to assist with literacy and communication
- Lucy Calkins training for grades 3 and 4

- Continuing with Reading Recovery
- More leveled literacy intervention training

Area of Growth

- Develop consistency in a concrete literacy program 3-6 (Writing and Reading)
- Student engagement
- Reading recovery books are 18+ years old (aged) we could use newer editions
- Needs more books for independent reading at the 4-6 grade levels Continued growth of our new book room
- Running Record training for all staff

- Need 1-2 more teachers trained in Reading Recovery
- Guided Reading in Upper Grades
- Outside trainer to come in and do running record training and make it mandatory for all teachers
- Aimsweb testing versus running records and how to correlate the two things

STEAM ENHANCEMENT

We will prepare students for success in the 21st Century with increased learning opportunities and increased student participation in the areas of science, technology, engineering, the arts, and math (STEAM).

Points of Pride

- STEAM room
- Maker Space
- Kids love going to makerspace. They are excited when it is their turn to stay

Areas of Growth

- Upper grade need to access the STEAM room more
- Support for the kids who need to be enriched
- Special education should utilize this room to maybe help the kids excel in the area of their strength.

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

We will focus attention on student motivation and engagement by supporting strategies and training needed to heighten each student's interest and engagement in his or her academic and extracurricular programs.

Points of Pride

- Students are using more technology/communication devices to engage with teachers/aides/other students more independently
- The artwork is displayed and students are so excited to see and share with peers. Often the artwork is connected to curriculum
- LLI books are very motivating
- Building wide use of technology for students-walk into any classroom and you can see this
- Schoology has been a tool for engaging students to complete homework that usually don't do it
- Special Education students are successful, contributing members of band and chorus
- Alternative seating allows students to stand at desks, sit on floor, ballchairs, or pillows while working

Areas of Growth

- Students taking ownership of their learning and personal responsibility
- Teach children how to organize themselves and help them become independent- maybe take a look from K-6 to see how we can incorporate this in each grade level to make it grow through the grades
- Agendas starting in 1st grade all the way to 6th Can it be a cost to the school to put on our budgets?

2016-2017 Department Chair Report
Special Programs 7-12

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

We will focus attention on student motivation and engagement by supporting strategies and training needed to heighten each student's interest and engagement in his or her academic and extracurricular programs.

Points of Pride:

- Providing students with options to capitalize on their learning styles for projects; including art, photography, music, etc. to demonstrate their text analysis or argument making skills.
- Providing real world audience with individual student jobs--each student has a role in the activity that is meaningful.

Areas for Growth:

- Supporting parents in supporting their student's learning. Increase understanding of and communication through technology.

STEAM ENHANCEMENT

We will prepare students for success in the 21st Century with increased learning opportunities and increased student participation in the areas of science, technology, engineering, the arts, and math (STEAM).

Points of Pride:

- Creating a new partnership with GST BOCES and having our students selected to represent Naples CSD in a regional competition (Sculpture/Welding).
- Mainstreaming students and providing access to STEAM content classes with consultant services to support their needs for accommodations/modifications in the regular setting, as opposed to more restrictive settings (i.e. 15:1, 8:1:1 self contained classrooms).

Areas for Growth:

- Continue to look for partnerships with local businesses for post-secondary employment or summer work; Connecting students with real world career interests and learning experiences.

ELA LITERACY PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

We will target student mastery of foundational and grade-level ELA skills and literacy achievement through district-wide ELA program development.

Points of Pride:

- Collaborative development of ELA curriculum and skills 7 through 12 via co-taught English classes--allows opportunity for greater collaboration in a small district where there is only 1 teacher in isolation at each grade level. Teachers of 15:1 and 8:1:1 English instruction collaborate with general educators at their level. The Library Media Specialist is included in this 7-12 collaboration across all ELA programming, as well as included for support in direct instruction and student modifications and accommodations, as appropriate.

Areas for Growth:

- Collaboration with reading specialists at the elementary level to work towards better benchmarking for student progress and work to integrate Leveled Literacy at the middle school and high school level for some of our struggling readers.

Respectfully Submitted,
Anneshia A. VanBortel

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT: We will focus attention on student motivation and engagement by supporting strategies and training needed to heighten each student's interest and engagement in their academic and extracurricular programs.

Points of Pride:

- Field Trips throughout the year to stimulate students' interest in career and college opportunities

- Frequent discussions on how extracurricular activities enrich a student's transcript and increase overall motivation and engagement in academics

Areas for Growth:

- Increase communication even more with parents to stimulate home conversations and encouragement about opportunities and academics

STEAM ENHANCEMENT: We will prepare students for success in the 21st Century with increased learning opportunities and student participation in the STEAM areas (science, technology, engineering, arts and math).

Points of Pride:

- Multiple field trips for 4 of 6 grade-levels sponsored and arranged by Guidance directly where students are exposed to STEAM careers
- Increased education with students and parents on the changing job and college market (i.e.: need for more education due to increasing integrated technology in careers; need for more students to take 4+ years of Math and Science; fact that students may end up pursuing a major or a career path that didn't exist 5-years ago or that certain jobs are growing obsolete)
- Communicating more with parents and students about outside STEAM programs
- Continual coordination with STEAM teachers on tweaking curriculum to address the changing marketplace
- Pursuit and selling of Independent STEAM opportunities for students who needed higher-level courses we didn't offer to administration, parents and students
- Continual work with teachers to get courses taught approved by area colleges as dual credit courses (i.e.: recently Math 110 was added as a college-credit option)

Areas for Growth:

- Continue to add STEAM speakers or field trip opportunities

ELA LITERACY PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT: We will target student mastery of foundational and grade-level ELA skills and literacy achievement through district-wide ELA program development.

Points of Pride:

- Coteaching of both soft and hard skills in multiple grade-levels that are tied to both ELA and Career and Counseling Curriculums (i.e.: resume writing, social-emotional awareness, self-advocacy, compassion for others, etc.)

Areas for Growth:

- Working with core teachers and administration, creatively expand ways we can support students who struggle with reading and writing
